Weekly News

It has been another busy week in school with all the children enjoying and engaging in fantastic learning opportunities.

Thank you to all of you for your attendance at Parents' Evening meetings this week.

Your continued support is appreciated.

We hope you all enjoy a relaxing weekend with your families.

Take care

Celebrating Reading!

The children have all enjoyed a wonderful day celebrating and promoting reading through a range of exciting and interesting activities.

The children (and staff) all look fantastic in their costumes and have made a fantastic effort.

Thank you for your support.

Please continue to encourage your children to read regularly at home.
Thank you.

Our Curriculum

At Hilldene we want our curriculum to be exciting, engaging, informative but most of all based on the skills that our pupils will need in all aspects of their lives, not just for the time that they are with us.

Full information of what your children are learning each term, within each subject can be found on the school website.
